

Spelling for February 23

1. buoyancy: buoyancy is the tendency to rise or float in water or air.
2. density: the amount of mass in a certain unit volume of a substance; this is known as a substance's density.
3. volume: turn up the volume on the stereo, I can't hear it.
4. analyze: look the research over and analyze the information.
5. Archimedes: Archimedes was a Greek scientist who discovered the idea of water displacement.
6. neutral: if you don't take one person's side, you are considered neutral.
7. fairy tale: a form of literature that includes magic as well as good versus evil.
8. underwater: if you like to swim underwater, you can take up scuba diving.
9. pressure: in chapter 6 of your Science textbook is on pressure fluids, it is a lot of fun.
10. perspective: you will be writing a fairy tale from another character's perspective.
11. instructions: one form of writing you will be learning this year is how to write instructions, the 'how to' in writing.
12. persuasive: persuasive writing one form of writing that tries to convince someone of your side of the argument.
13. oratory: you will be writing speeches for our school oratory.
14. research: one aspect of speech writing is research, which will be done according to the proper format.
15. avalanche: an avalanche is a huge snowslide.
16. Olympics: The competition of athletes across the planet that will meet in Vancouver in 2010 is named the Olympics.
17. displaced: people who have no place to go in a time of war are displaced.
18. refugee: displaced people are usually living in refugee camps.
19. Israel: a small country that has experienced much war is known as Israel.
20. Palestine: One country that is at war with Israel is Palestine.